Contractual Liability and your insurance cover

Many commercial or business contracts contain clauses dealing with your liability (including indemnities or hold harmless clauses). Such clauses may entitle your insurers to reduce cover, or in some cases, refuse to indemnify you at all. You should seek legal advice before signing and accepting contracts. You should inform us of any clauses of this nature before you enter into them.

How will I pay for the services provided?

Payment for the services we provide are payable directly to BJS. For each insurance product, the insurer will charge a premium that includes any relevant taxes, charges and levies. BJS often receive a payment based on a percentage of this premium (excluding relevant taxes, charges and levies) called commission which is paid to BJS by the insurers. In some cases, you will also be charged a fee. These will all be shown on the invoice that is sent to you. You can choose to pay for our services by any of the payment methods set out in the invoice. You are required to pay BJS within the time set out on the invoice.

If there is a refund or reduction of your premium as a result of a cancellation or alteration to a policy or based on a term of your policy (such as a premium adjustment provision, we will retain any fee we have charged you. We will also retain commission depending on our arrangements with the insurer. Or charge you a cancellation fee equal to the reduction in commission.

When you pay us your premium it will be banked into BJS's trust account. BJS will retain the commission from the premium you pay us and remit the balance to the insurers in accordance with BJS's arrangements with the Insurer. BJS will earn interest on the premium while it is in their trust account or BJS may invest the premium and earn a return. BJS will retain any interest or return on investment earned on the premium.

How are any commissions, fees or other benefits calculated for the providing the financial services?

Commission

BJS are generally paid a commission by the insurers when we arrange insurances for you. The commission received reflects in part the work that we do on behalf of the insurer, including tasks such as mail, invoicing and collecting premiums, electronic data submission, providing insurer documentation, handling your policy queries, claims support activities and the general marketing of the insurers products to our clients.

BJS's commission will be calculated based on the following formula:

$$X = Y\% \times P$$

In this formula:

X = BJS commission

Y% = the percentage commission paid to BJS by the insurer. Their commission varies between 0% and 30%

P = the amount you pay for any insurance policy (less any government fees or charges included in that amount)

We received 100% of BJS's commission.

We do not often pay any commissions, fees or benefits to others who refer you to us or refer us to an Insurer. If we do, we will pay commissions to those people out of commission or fees (not in addition to those amounts), in the range of 0% and 50% of our commission or fees.

Fees paid by you

We generally charge our clients a broker fee for the additional services that we provide which are not covered by the commissions received from insurers. Activities that such fees cover are detailed in our Terms of Engagement.

How are our staff and advisors paid?

Our employee that will assist you with your insurance needs will be paid a market salary which may include, for the policies we arrange for you, a small percentage of our commission or fees.

If we give you personal advice, we will inform you of any fees, commission or other payments we, our associates or anyone referring you to us (or us to any insurer) will receive in relation to the policies that are the subject of the advice.

Do we have any relationships or associations with the insurers who issue the insurance policies or any other material relationships?

If you instruct us to arrange or issue a product, this is when we become entitled to the commission.

Our commission rates for premium funding are in the range of 0% and 4% of funded premium. When we arrange premium funding for you, you can ask us what commission rates we are paid for that funding arrangement compared to the other arrangements that were available to you. The amount of our commission and any fee that we charge will set out in the premium funding contract.
